St Aloysius' College

Privacy Statement for parents (or guardians) of current pupils

ICO Registration Number: Z7328006

This document provides you with information about how we are handling, or are intending to handle, your personal information.

We are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy and complying with the principles of the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR). This notice sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you, or that you provide to us, will be processed by us. Please read the following carefully to understand our views and practices regarding your personal data and how we will treat it.

Who We Are

St Aloysius' College (The College) is a company limited by guarantee (SC405951) registered in Scotland. We are a Jesuit school and a charity registered in Scotland (SC042545). Our registered office is 45 Hill Street, Glasgow, G3 6RJ. But, for the purposes of this Privacy Policy, it's just easier if we refer to ourselves as "we" or "The College".

Collection of personal data

The College may collect and/or create or otherwise obtain and process the following data about you:

- Information about you that you provide by filling in forms or contacting us (e.g. through email, letter, phone);
- Information about you that our staff generate in performing their duties (e.g. notes from a meeting);
- Information from third parties where you consent to those third parties sharing information they hold on you with us, and/or where those third parties lawfully share your information with us (e.g. police, credit reference agencies, other schools).

Uses made of your information and the basis of processing

We will use your personal information to allow your child to make the best of their time at St Aloysius' College. The school will therefore have what is called a "legitimate interest" for processing basic personal data.

The College will not use any of the personal information we collect from you to make automated decisions.

The College expects that the following uses will fall within its “legitimate interests”:

- To support the smooth running of the school (e.g. contact details, relationships to other pupils and parents/guardians, occupation to enable appropriate contact regarding collaboration about careers talks, work experience);
- To safeguard pupils' welfare and provide appropriate pastoral care (e.g. Information about your family circumstances that you feel will help us best support your child);
- To give and receive information and references about past, current and prospective pupils, including relating to outstanding fees or payment history, to/from any educational institution that the pupil attended or where it is proposed they attend;
- For security purposes if you visit the school, including CCTV in accordance with the school's CCTV policy;
- To carry out or cooperate with any school or external complaints, disciplinary or investigation process; and
- Where otherwise reasonably necessary for the school's purposes, including to obtain appropriate professional advice and insurance for the school.

Information security

The College will take all steps reasonably necessary including policies, procedures and security features to ensure that your data is treated securely and protected from unauthorised and unlawful access and/or use, and in accordance with this notice.

Where we have given you (or where you have chosen) a password which enables you to access certain systems, you are responsible for keeping this password confidential. We ask you not to share such a password with anyone.

Data sharing

We will share information about you with some of our suppliers who process data on our behalf to help us to provide services to you. We undertake this data sharing on the basis of our legitimate interests.

Categories of organisation and purpose

- Other Schools – references to any educational institution that it is proposed the pupil attends.

International transfer of personal data

We do not generally envisage transferring your data to anyone who is located outside of the European Economic Area. One exception to this will be international trips that the school organises. When your son/daughter signs up for a trip, you will be contacted for your consent, the consent will be limited in time and content if it be required.

However, on rare occasions, the information we collect may be transferred to organisations who may store and use such data at premises in other countries. Where we allow an organisation to process your personal information outside of the European Economic Area, we will ensure that we create and maintain appropriate safeguards with those organisations so that your personal information is subject to the same standards and protections as when we are processing your personal information inside the European Economic Area.

Data retention period

We will hold information about you in our data systems only for as long as we need it for the purpose for which we collected it, which is as follows:

- The retention period for most parent data will be the same as the corresponding pupil data i.e. 7 years after their cohort leaves S6.
- Data relating to special educational needs will be retained for 17 years after the pupil's cohort leaves S6.
- Data relating to Child Protection Issues will be retained indefinitely.

These can all be modified by any other legal obligation the school finds itself under.

The data subject's rights

Under the GDPR, you have rights as an individual which you can exercise in relation to the information we hold about you.

You can read more about these rights here – <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/is-my-information-being-handled-correctly/>

Changes to our privacy policy

Any changes we may make to our Privacy Notice in the future will be posted on our website and, where appropriate, notified to you by date-stamped communication.
